“ Dear family, We are saddened as yo are at the loss of "Miss Mary". We shared many good years with her and family at McBee UMC. My children always knew who she was and how she would go out of her way to speak to them at church. She also encouraged me as a Mom, Wife, and Christian lady. Our peace is now to know that shw is with our Lord and the loved ones gone before. We will continue to remember you in our prayers at this time. “ A petite, hard-working lady with a big laugh and personality, Aunt Mary was forever on the go. Truly, a dedicated, giving mother & grandmother, she was also kind & loving to me, her niece. An avid reader, she told me that books enabled her to visit places all over the world. I can still see her making those sandwiches to sell at Uncle Payton's service station...and reprimanding mischievous Phil. Jimmy, Phil, Carolyn & girls, I loved your mother and will miss her, but she will be remembered with joy! Cousin Ann###imported-begin##Ann Middleton Sigmon###imported-end##
