“ Bonnie, Micky and Melissa, I just found out about your loss. My heart is heavy knowing the loss you all must feel. I will have you in my prayers and know the kindness of your dad will always be a memory. Remember the times he was a taxi driver for Kellytown youth during the teen years when times were so busy for all of you. Things like that show just how much he loved you both.

“ Mike was a very kind and caring brother, husband, father and friend. He enjoyed life in so many ways and made those around him always feel welcome. Mike loved racing. I always knew where he was during race time. He loved children and they loved him. He gave me my first dance lesson in our living room. It was a slow dance and that was quite a sight to behold. I never stepped on my dancing partners feet again after that lesson. He will be missed but always remembered.
