“ Mrs. Sanderson was one of sweetest ladies I'm ever had the pleasure of knowing. Growing up she lived on the same street as my mother. She would tell me about my mother as a young lady prior to marrying my father, being in church with her and other young people that lived on that street, etc. Probably, the most endearing memory I have of her is she would often call me by my mothers name. To me that's a blessing.

She will be greatly missed by so many. Bro. Sanderson, Joyce, and family please know that you are all remembered in prayer.

*God bless,
Sandra Jones*
