“ Everyone sent you birthday wishes but they put them on Facebook instead of here. It has been a sad-feeling day knowing that you were not here for your birthday. I didn't get to the cemetery today, but will try to get there tomorrow. Just wanted to be close to you for a little while. Andrew wanted to go and send you balloons, but today was a mixed-up day schedule wise. Ben and Glenn had to register for school, Cody had an eye appointment in Charleston, Andrew slept late and then had Bible school, and Glenn had guitar. But we all have you in our hearts and mind. When I went to Melanie's tonight, your sweet little niece Sarah showed me a picture that she had colored and put stickers on and told me that it was for Millicent. I carried Glenn to Suzanne's and Cagney went and looked out the door when I came in, like he was looking for someone. I know you had a wonderful day with Mama, Caroline, Lolo and Mema. We all love you and miss you terribly. Debby

Becca, you know how I feel. I have loss my sister too (remember I'm the 5th one) but the memories I have will live on forever. Especially the Sunday afternoon bike ride with all of us freezing but still riding and having fun. Daddy making us hot chocolate and turning on the gas logs. Not only a memory of Millicent but a wonderful memory of us all being together. She joins all of our other guardian angels. My thoughts and prayers continue to be with You, Debby, Suzanne and the rest of the family. Love you my bestest friend.
