“ Joey, Robbie, I can't imagine the grief you hold in your hearts. I'm still fortunate to have my mother and I do not look forward to the day when she will be forever gone. Your mother was truly a remarkable person. She may not have been rich in money, but she was rich in love and shared it with you guys wholly and equally. She always seemed to have a positive attitude in life. I know you will miss her dearly. Now you must fill the void in your lives with the memories forever held in your minds and hearts. God bless her soul!##imported-begin##Scott Johnson##imported-end##

“ While technically Miriam was just another of my co-workers, she was more than that to me. She was a good friend. We both used to come in very early, before the rest of the crew, and we'd talk. We could discuss more in our precious half-hour in the morning than most people even think about all day. Miriam was wise and perceptive. I counted on Miriam to help ground me when I had some problem. And I think she counted on me to discuss fears and problems she couldn't talk about to anyone else. I've already been missing her here at work - I don't even get in so early anymore because she's not here - but now I'll really be missing her. Matter of fact, I think the whole crew's been missing her. We loved you, Miriam!###imported-begin###Donna Slyce###imported-end###

“ Dear Joey, Robbie, & John,
Sorry I can't make it to the service. I love Miriam more than you would ever know. She is the only person that I knew that would be by my side no matter what. She was a very selfless person and would talk about you all with so much sincere love in her heart. She enjoyed the company of her grandchildren so much. She looked at the positive side of life & would tell me frequently funny stories about her brother, John. I will make it down soon & hope to meet all the family & people she loved so dearly. I do believe in God & the eternal life. Miriam & I talked about it often. I just know Miriam is on God's right side, probably talking about the hardships of life & when we finally make it to heaven, how peaceful, how beautiful, how serene life is. Miriam had a beautiful soul. I would ask her questions sometimes and she would search & search until she found the answers. She was the smartest person I ever knew. She loved to read, she was an investigator of mythology. Miriam didn't really like to talk about herself. She was always concerned about others, especially her family. I'll admit, the last time I talked to her, she sounded fine. I asked her what was wrong & she said "oh, I'm tired of talking about that, I'm retired, watching my 32" TV & looking forward to the next day." She said "Kathy, if you need to get away, you're more than welcome to come & stay with me. We'll talk, relax, watch TV & order a pizza." Yes, Miriam was and still is the most beautiful person I've ever known. Love, Kathy###imported-begin###Kathy Leahy###imported-end###

So very sorry to hear of your loss. Although I have not seen her in recent years, she was always a sweet lady and both Ryan and Angie thought a lot of her. May you cling to Christ during this time for strength and comfort!
