“ Miriam...I am so sorry for your pain and suffering here but you have achieved the ultimate gift of eternal life. We became friends soon after I started school in Lugoff, 8th or 9th grade. We had many good times together and I just shake my head and smile when I think about some of those shenanigans! We lost touch for several years but I am so glad I was able to talk to you again before you had to leave us far too soon. You will be dearly missed. Love you, RIP.

“ Me and Miriam are 2nd cousins. We grew up together! My family lived down a dirt road and Miriam's family lived at the beginning of the road. I am 3 months older than her. There were so many days especially during the summer that me, my sister Teresa , Miriam and her sister Cathy would meet in the middle and play in the woods between our houses. In High School me and Miriam and Carla Cassidy hung out together. Me and Miriam worked together at Lugoff IGA. I hadnt seen her as often as I would have liked over the past years but she always had and will have a special place in my heart. I called her about 2 weeks before she passed away and talked with her on the phone! My prayers go out to Trent , Shaun and the children! I know they will miss her greatly! Tent I have heard good things about you, she found a good man! She told me she was ready to go when God got ready for her. I am reassured that she is reunited in heaven with her parents and her sister Cathy!

“ It has been a long battle for you.....but I am glad you are at peace with no more pain.

Trent loves you more than life. He will keep doing a good job with the children. Shawn has been such a great help with you and the kids. You should be very proud of him but I know you are proud of him.

R.I.P. UNTIL WE ALL MEET AGAIN.....love you Aunt Mary and Uncle Rick
