“ I'm at a loss of words and that's not like Scatter!!! I'll miss you and I will always love you like a 2nd Daddy!! As much time as I spent growing up around you and your beautiful family; y'all became family to our family!! My very 1st mountain trip, was with you and your family!! All those precious and mostly hilarious memories are worth more than gold to me!!! And all our funny saying that only we get: "It's a Dove, a flying Dove", "The white horse knows", "As I tippy-tippy toe thru the tulips", and many more but hands down my FAVORITE is just one word... "Scatter"!! I know when you closed your eyes on this side of Jordan, you opened them to beauty and peace like none of us will understand, until we get Home. I'm sure you were met at the Gates by your Momma and all the family that's gone before you!! And you heard those wonderful words, 'Welcome Home my good and faithful servant". Now you're walking the street of Gold in your brand new body having the best time!! I know you wouldn't take nothing for your journey now!! I'll see you again one sweet day!! I pray God wraps His arms of comfort, peace, and understanding around Verla, Misty, Rhonda, those precious Grandbabies, and all your family and friends; and gives each of them comfort that only He can give provide during the coming days, weeks, and months!! This isn't goodbye, but I'll see you later Scatter!!

“ Verla, I'm so saddened to hear of this loss. I knew Morgan since we were kids, he was always the same, kind, polite, dependable and always smiling! He was very good carpenter and did a lot of work for me, I enjoyed talking and catching up with my friend during that time. I miss those times. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this difficult time and in the days ahead. One thing is for sure, He is now in heaven with our Lord and Savior.

“ I knew Morgan forever. He was 4 years older than me but we rode the same school bus. But he was in a higher grade than I. He use to come to the house to look at my uncle Gary Hicks hunting dogs. He was a very pleasant person to talk with. But years since I have seen him. Remembering the family in days and weeks ahead. Sending prayers and positive thoughts to the family.

“ Morgan was a lifelong friend. He will be so missed by so many. The first time I heard Amazing Grace to the tune of House of the Rising Sun was Morgan playing it. He always had a smile when I would see him. On my visits to Spring Branch Church he was always there to say hello with a smile. To all the family you are in our prayers. We will see him again.
