Mr. Morrison was born on Sunday, December 20th, 1936, in Chesterfield Co., South Carolina. He is the son of Daniel Angus Morrison Sr. and Marie Stokes.

Olin was a 1955 graduate of McBee High School, where he was a member of the football team, the FFA, and vice-president of the Senior Class. After graduation, he was initially employed as a telephone lineman for AT&T. In 1965, he began his career with the United States Fish and Wildlife Service at Carolina Sandhills National Wildlife Refuge in McBee, SC as a biological technician and equipment operator. In his almost twenty-year career there, he was dedicated to wildlife conservation and loved sharing God's natural creation with the general public and mentoring future generations. His practical knowledge added to the importance of research to protect and preserve endangered species.

Expanding his mechanical skills, Olin ventured into a career in industrial maintenance. Later, forming his own company, McBee Mechanical and Fabrication, he serviced a variety of local industries and enjoyed providing opportunities to skilled young men.

Upon retirement, he returned full-time to his childhood love of farming and raising livestock. With his son David, he enjoyed several decades of agricultural ownership. Caring for and training his many horses and mules brought him great joy which was shared with others as he participated in local parades and festivals. He especially enjoyed riding with his brother Frank and sponsoring young people in rodeo competitions and youth sports teams.

Olin was a member of Union Methodist Church which he faithfully supported as an older adult. He was past president of the Men's Club and a member of the choir. He served as an active trustee for many years. He especially enjoyed the friendships he shared within his Sunday School class and the Senior Citizens JOY Club.

Morrison; brothers, John E. Morrison, Mendel L. Morrison, Daniel A. Morrison, Jr., and Franklin D. Morrison; sisters, Amy L. Morrison, Elizabeth Frostick, and Frances Morrison.
