“Kim so sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. She was full of fun and energy. Wonder where you get your traits from? Love you and your family.

“Kim, I am just now finding out about your mom. Your mom was the most sweetest, free-spirited person I have ever known. I can remember asking her could she give me a ride home to my aunt's house back in the 8th grade. And she took me there with no hesitation. She was that teacher! So upbeat, full of life, had passion in what she loved. And not to mention, she was too funny. Always remember, she will always be loved and Mrs. D will be forever missed. ☐ 🕊️

“ I was just talking about her last week. My classroom is down the hall from her old classroom. Whenever I go in there I think about her. She not only made us feel comfortable but also had a true passion for sharing her knowledge with us. I'll always remember her quick wit and how she always made the classroom feel like a safe place to learn. Her dedication and unwavering belief in her students will never be forgotten, and her legacy will live on in the hearts of so many. Our deepest condolences go out to her family during this difficult time”.

“ This is so heartbreaking to read. Ms. Doughty was a gem. She loved her students like no other teacher I have ever known. I will never forget her bringing students over during Christmas break for our own little Christmas Party. She will sorely be missed. Oh how I am going to miss her smile, laughter and just her being here.
