“ Hal, I'm so sorry to hear of your dad's passing. I know you spent alot of time with him over the past few months and you're going to miss him being here. I met Mr. Byrd when I first came to work for SPC Credit Union and always enjoyed talking with him when he came in. He always had a funny story or just a little conversation that always made talking to him a blessing. May God bless you and your family in the days ahead and I'll be praying for each of you!

I know you have many, many great memories to give you comfort!
