“ It is with mixed emotions I say goodbye to my father-in-law. I am grateful for his life and honorable service to our great country, he was a great soldier, I am grateful the lord took him home . He is now free from pain and happily reunited with the love of his life, his wife Virginia. Michael and I will carry fond memories and a closeness we felt in the weeks prior to his death and the peace we feel knowing he happy, safe and pain-free. Much love and prayers for Michael and his sisters Ginny and Faye during this very difficult time.
