“ Anne, Timmy and family,
I cannot tell you how sad I was to hear about Otis. I have fond memories of times at your home, Anne, for Osborne family reunions and visits. Otis was such a kind and loving person. He always had a smile on his face and was welcoming to us. Olin Emily and I will miss him. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Remember Psalm 121 , "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help. My help comes from the Lord..." The Lord will sustain you in the days ahead.

“ Dear Kim, Sharon and Melinda,

Carl and I, both, have lost our daddies, and we have some idea how your hearts must be hurting. We wish Otis could have been here with you all longer, but try to remember and be thankful for all of the joys and memories he shared with us. We trust that you will find peace in knowing that our Lord will be with you and comfort you now and always. We feel that you all are part of our extended family, and know that you are in our prayers. We love y'all.##imported-begin##Jackie and Carl##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Ann, Kim, Melinda, & Sharon -

I am very saddened and sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Otis. I can only imagine what you must be going through at this time. He is remembered by me as one of the nicest people that I have ever met as he always made me feel at home and welcome during the time that I was priveledged to spend there. He was then, in large part, responsible for one of the happiest times in my life, and now, for some of the fondest memories anyone could ever hope to have. Mr. Otis will be greatly missed but I know you have a strong, tight knit family, that may not ever get over it, but will get through it. You have always been in my thoughts and prayers daily and I hope that God will in some way ease the enormous pain that you are feeling now.

It is very difficult for me to write this note to you. I am so heart broken and at a loss of words, there are no human words or deeds that can comfort such a great loss as my dear uncle Otis. BUT our GREAT comforter the Lord Jesus Christ is more than able to see you and the family through this and I know he will. I love you all and am praying for you. Psalm 23.

“ Miss Ann, Sharon, Kim, and Melinda. I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of Mr. Otis. My memories of my childhood are full of days when Sharon or Kim would come babysit my sister and I during the summer and we would spend countless hours down the street at your house riding bikes, playing, and me deathly afraid of going into your pool. I clearly remember Mr. Otis adjusting the seat on my bike and then poked fun at me telling me I was too big for training wheels. I hope that you all find comfort during this time and may the Father wrap you in his loving arms. My thoughts are prayers are with you! My love to all of you!

“ Melinda,
No words are of comfort to you and your family at this time. Let the words come as you will graciously allow. As time moves forward the last memories will fade and you will begin to heal and remember all the good times that so many will remind you of. Losing a loved one is devastating...even today I still hold my breath and swallow deeply and each day I put one foot on the floor and move forward and look forward to a new day...a good day. Remember all the wonderful moments and know that he is at peace. Time will make things better but it will never be the same. Trust me when I say this, for I know. I send my thoughts to you, and know that I am here if you need me...possibly nothing more that to hold you up from falling to your knees. Remember we can fall no further and do so in prayer. My head bowed knowing the pain. Trust that god will be with you and your family. Thinking of you.##imported-begin##Susan Van Berckelaer##imported-end##

My thoughts and Prayers are with each of you at this most difficult time in your lives. May God give each of you the strength, courage, comfort and peace in the days and months to come. I know the pain and heartache that you are going through with the loss of a parent and only time and your precious memories of your loved one can help to ease your pain. Take one day at a time and lean on each other and on God to get you all through this. Please know that you all are in my thoughts and Prayers.

“ Ann, Sharon, Kim and Melinda. To Timmy. And to Janice. We know there are no words to ease your pain. Timmy, I know also of what it is like to lose a brother. When my brother, Billy Johnson, died I felt my world ended. And a part of it did. Neither of you will ever be the same again. But there is a poem by Edna St. Vincent Milay that I kept repeating to myself. It says in part: "Life must go on....I know not why". Think of the children, Ann and the grandchildren. Girls, think of your children and how they too will suffer from the loss of a grandfather that loved them dearly. I know that Ryan, as the first, was Otis' heart. They need you more now. Timmy, remember your youth with Otis and what a wonderful older brother he was. He always was so proud of you -- even when you thought he wasn't. Janice, I know that you loved Otis and depended on him as if he were your brother. You and your girls will also miss him, I'm sure.
