“ Dear Sandra, Billy Wayne, Maxine, Heyward, Tonda, Dana, Sheila, and family,
I am so sad about the passing of Pansy. I've known her for such a long time. She really had a heart of gold and such a beautiful smile. I always welcomed her at my home and I am so glad that I could call her my friend. I just thank God that she opened the door when he knocked and now she is at peace with her heavenly father and that some day I'll be able to see her again. Thank God for his love, mercy and grace. I am here for you all if you ever need me for anything. Just hold on the memories that you have. No one can ever take them away. I'll continue my prayers for you. God bless you all.
Love,

Pansy was a special friend of mine years ago. I have thought of her often through the years. She had a passion for life, family and friends. Her smile was radiant and her compassion for people was endless. Anyone who met her will never forget her.*

“ Dear Family-

You probably do not rememeber me but I am an old friend of Pansy's from 1990-1992. I moved back to West Virginia and eventually lost touch with Pansy. We still have family in the Myrtle Beach area that occasionally would run into Pansy and when I would see them at our family reunions, I would always get an update. The last we heard from Pansy was in 2003 when she asked my cousin to get me a message. Unfortunately, I did not get the message until the Summer of 2004 and never did get a hold of her. My cousin called me last night to let me know that Pansy was now living with God. Pansy was a wonderful person...a ono-of-a-kind! I loved her very much and in tribute to her, I have included a poem that I thought would be an appropriate way of expressing my feelings...

After a while you learn the subtle difference between holding a hand and chaining a soul, and you learn that love doesn't mean leaning and company doesn't mean security, and you begin to learn that kisses aren't contracts and presents aren't promises, and you begin to accept your defeats with your head up and your eyes ahead, with the grace of a woman, not the grief of a child, and you learn to build all your roads on today because tomorrow's ground is too uncertain for plans, and futures have a way of falling down in mid-flight. After a while you learn that even sunshine burns if you get too much. So you plant your own garden and decorate your own soul, instead of waiting for someone to bring you flowers. And you learn that you really can endure... That you really do have worth. And you learn and you learn... With every goodbye you learn.##imported-begin##Greg Adolfson##imported-end##

“ Dear Sandra, What a shock! I have just read about Pansy's death, and I find myself speechless. She has always held a special place in my heart--since the time I first met her as her fourth-grade teacher. As you know, I never got to see her once she returned to Hartsville; and I regret that more than I can explain. Please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I can not imagine how devastated you must be. May the Lord bless you during this difficult time with the peace and comfort only He can provide. “ Our thoughts and prayers go out to you and all of your family. Just remember this is not the end for Pansy but she will be greatly missed by all that knew her. I will always remember her beautiful smile. She always cut Neal's hair and we always had a lot of fun talking. We had a lot of fun going out to eat with the gang. I am so sorry we couldn't come but Neal has been real sick and just got out of ICU about two weeks ago. May God Bless you.##imported-begin##Neal and Cindy LaPrade##imported-end##
