“ Paulette, my dear, sweet friend, Mrs. Lowe and family, Isn't it amazing how God worked it out so that the one thing that makes us the most vulnerable to pain is the same thing that gives us true peace and hope when we are hurting, the ability to love and be loved. Some people live their entire lives not knowing either. Mrs. Pauline left that legacy of love with each of you. To "Miss Elizabeth"... I know you have been a gift not only to Mrs. Pauline, but to her amazing family. There really are angels who walk among us and I suspect you are one of them. Paulette and Mrs. Lowe, I am sure that Mother Kate, Mother Mack and Daddy Mack are among many welcoming her "HOME". Love, Jeda##imported-begin##Jeda Kelley Brandel##imported-end##

“ Nannie,

Thanks so much for influencing my life. You have truly been a God send to me. You have shown me how to live my life with dignity, love, and grace and how to die with the same virtues. I will always remember your bright smile, your loving ways, your good food especially your chocolate pies, your sweetness, and your compassion for others and most of all your true grit. Your christian values have blessed me in so many profound ways. God bless you and rest well with Jesus. I look forward to seeing you in heaven. Always your little girl, Paulette##imported-begin##Paulette Lowe Blake##imported-end##

“ I won't say good bye to Aunt Pauline; I know Jesus promises that we will all be together someday. I miss her but look forward to that day when I will see her again. She is my favorite aunt who loved gardening, cooking, sewing, baseball, reading, church, and going on trips to the beach. I will never forget those Friday nights when we got together for spaghetti suppers...the big green colored coconut cakes she made for Easter...the cute little pekingese dog "Chan" she had for many years...her love for all of the family...and her rollicking laughter which I thought I heard in the background tonight during the family visitation as we all shared our happy memories of "the best" mother, grandmother, and aunt in the world! I am truly blessed to have known her.##imported-begin##Jimmy Ballard##imported-end##
