“ my childhood memories are full of thoughts of the Johnson family. Growing up right up the road, I was always at their door. Lunch or dinner, trips to the movies & even family vacations to the mountains. I remember on one trip to the mountains, I was sitting in the back seat and spotted a police car(bubble gum blue light) way up ahead and Dickey said wow! You'd make a good truck driver spotting that so quickly! 🚓 Once I came by & Dickey was in the back yard working on the Maudes electric fence. He said, hey come grab this and see if it's on? (he was standing there holding it, so I thought nothing of it) I grabbed it, it knocked me down! He had on rubber soles shoes so he couldn't tell it was on! Always playing tricks, funny now- not so much at the time 😊 Barabra & Dickey & Cindy always treated me like family. Fond memories will always be in my heart of all of you. My deepest sympathy & love to you in this time of loss.
