“ *Mom,
There are no words to express how I feel. I count every hour and remember every word. You were and always will remain the strongest woman I have ever known.*

With every ounce of my being.

I love you,

“ Precious Ones,

My, how your "Mother"(Deb), and "Ma", (Kim) loved you; both the same and yet in such different ways. Thank God for "two eyeballs" because you were certainly hers.

I thank you so much for the honor and privilege of helping with her care. She was so beautiful and uncomplaining. Only God could have given her the grace she displayed. She is already being missed but I know that we will see her again with a healthy body and so much to tell us about all of our loved ones (especially, her Jesus.)

I feel so blessed to be her sister by blood and her "Sister in Christ."

You will stay in my prayers.

God bless you both, forever.

“ Dear Kim,

It was such a shock to read of your mother's death! The last time I saw her, she was in remission and doing well. That has obviously been quite a while. I remember our days working together at Sonoco when you were still in High School. Unfortunately, once I quit working there and went on Disability, we lost touch. But I never forgot about her or you. You are so young still, and my heart aches for you at this time. I still remember how hard it was when I lost my own mother. Please be assured that you are in my thoughts and prayers. May the Lord bless you with strength and comfort that only He can provide. In His love, Rachel###imported-begin##Rachel Doyle Medlin###imported-end##

“ Although I knew Peggy only through Deborah, I felt a kindred spirit with her and a love for her as my mom had suffered with the same illness. A pastor once told me that you never lose anyone to Heaven; as we are only apart for a little while and will be together again. May the comfort and peace that only comes from our Heavenly Father be with you, Deborah and your family.###imported-begin##James & Gloria Huff###imported-end##

“ While we didn't have the privilege of personally knowing Peggy, we know her by the light and grace that is in her daughter Deborah. We praise the Lord Jesus Christ that one day we will meet Peggy in heaven and together celebrate with our Lord and King! Till that day may grace and peace be with all those she has left behind.##imported-begin##Cindy & Kerry Martin##imported-end##
