“ This is to Kathy and the rest of the Bledsoe family.Kathy, I remember going to your house when we were in school at Thornwell. I remember how sweet your mother was to me.She made me feel right at home.She was and still is a very special spirit. You inherited some of her specialness also.Although we sort of went our separate ways in high school, I still remember some of the good times when we were little.I know that God will watch over all of you during this time.May peace and happiness be with all of you!##imported-begin##Cathy Williamson Lynch##imported-end##
