

Mr. Phillip L. Hurley

March 9, 1942 - January 14, 2020

Graveside services for Mr. Phillip L. Hurley, 77, will be held at 11:00 am on Saturday, January 18th, 2020 at the Swift Creek Baptist Church Cemetery. The Rev. Steve Winburn will officiate. Brown-Pennington-Atkins is caring for the family.

Phillip L. Hurley entered into rest on Tuesday, January 14, 2020. He was born March 9, 1942 in Red Bank, NJ a son of the late Hudson M. Hurley and Gladys Sexton Hurley. In addition to his parents, he was also preceded in death by his stepmother, Miriam Rhodes Hurley.

Survivors include his brother, Wade M. Hurley (Georgia) and a niece, Kathy Hurley from Rock Hill, SC.

Phillip was a faithful member of Park Hills Church of God in Spartanburg, SC until he moved to Palmetto Village Assisted Living in Chester, SC. As a young man, Phillip enjoyed driving a tractor on the small family farm in Hartsville, SC. He played the trumpet in the high school band and continued to enjoy music throughout his life. He particularly liked songs by George Beverly Shae.

Although Phillip had physical challenges, he met each one with determination. He had friends of all ages and he will be missed.

The family is grateful for the love and care shown to him by the wonderful people at Palmetto Village and MUSC Hospital in Chester, SC.

“ So very sorry to hear this news. Phillip was one of my residents for many years. We had many laughs together along with a few tears. You will be missed my friend but I know there will be a Heritage Court family reunion in heaven. You are free of any illness now my friend and healed. Wade you are in my prayers.
