“ THE PEACE INSIDE

What a blessing that came wrapped in the wings of a letter

The peace inside.

The words that rim over and escape in the form of a single tear drop.

The peace inside.

Understanding that it is not the need to understand but to accept what you heart knows.

The peace inside.

Its' reality is found within the depths of love and will never conform with lust.

The peace inside.

For it is not of us yet lives in us, surfacing in the death of heartache and misery.

The peace inside.

The lovely reminisce of a terminal wound. The mark that's left when fatality or destruction is denied.

He defies death.

He is The Peace inside.

“ From the neighborhood to the hallways of Dreher High School to the sands of Myrtle Beach, SC - my memories are filled with the adventures shared with my friend, Pride Turner. As so often is the case, we grow up and go our separate ways. Pride moved away to Florida where I am sure he was an excellent charter boat captain, and I missed him. I was saddened to hear of his passing and my heart goes out to Rick, Norma, Noel, and Paige. He will forever live in the stories I have told my children and will surely tell their children. I will miss him even more now that he has passed, but I am sure he is working on locating the best spots in Heaven to hunt and fish. Rest in peace my friend - you will live on in the hearts and souls of all of us that had the pleasure to know you.##imported-begin##Coy Crosby##imported-end##

“ This world is hard when you lose people like Pride. I am sorry for the loss of Pride, he was a pleasure for me to know. I appreciate the work he did. Pride helped me and my son when we needed help. Pride did good carpentry work. Pride would always make time to give some attention to our dog. Some folks were afraid to our dog but Pride had a gentle way with him. I enjoyed hearing the fishing stories from the Florida ocean charter boat days. I am glad to have known Pride and wish that his life was longer. My sympathys go out to Norma and Dan and the family and friends that loved and knew Pride. I am so sorry for your deep loss.##imported-begin##Rosemary G. Dalton##imported-end##
