Tribute Wall

“ I only met Rachael a couple times but I was friends with her sister Becky for many years and I knew of the wonderful family Becky came from. After a visit south we would hear all the news and about the great times the family had while she was there. I know the sisters were very close and had such love for each other. I pray for peace in your hearts and know you will always remember all the wonderful moments you had together.##imported-begin##Pat and Rene Tougas##imported-end##
