“ Dear Family;

I read about Mr. Evans' death and I want you to know that I am very sorry for your loss. Please accept my sincerest condolences and a few words of comfort from the Holy Scriptures.

The loss of a dear loved one can cause almost unbearable pain, but remember that you do have help to bear it. Our merciful, Heavenly Father is keenly aware of what you are going through and he is there for you to help you through this difficult time. (Psalms 9:9,10; 55:22; 145:18,19) So, please draw ever closer to and accept all the help from "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation." -2 Corinthians 1:3,4.

Our loving God, Jehovah, also purposes to one day reunite us with our dear loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. (Job 14:14,15; Isaiah 26:19; John 5:28,29) Knowing that you will see Mr. Ray again will hopefully bring you some solace during your hour of bereavement. I will also keep you in my prayers.

*Sincerely & Respectfully Yours,
Carolyn*
