“ I am honored to have known this great friend almost all my life...He was a friend among friends. I actually remembered him when I was 9 years of age at the Little Church Known as the Hartsville Congregational Holiness Church at the corner of Dunn Ave and McFarland Street. We had a ground breaking service at corner of McFarland Street and Nandina in early 1974. As the write up stated Ray accepted Christ in 1973. but his zeal for a new church being built made it seem like he was saved way before then. His smile and enthusiasm was a sparkle that I wish everyone had. Ray was like a Mentor..and he had really taught me alot anything from changing the oil in the Church Bus....Driving it to the Oil Company where he worked to wash it and clean it up..playing the bass.....And the Autoharp. and Driving his 3 speed Chevy Pickup truck.I will never forget we were stopped at the road leading to the church..I reached to change the gear Ray said DONT YOU TOUCH THAT YET. One thing I did learn From Ray NOT was touch a spark Plug on a lawnmower thats for sure. and when we went for coffee on Saturdays before going to cur grass at Church he drove that oil truck. he told me there was a certain way to maneuver a cup of coffee when ever he went across the r r tracks or I would be wearing coffee on my clothes. I remember obe tine in a church service in the New sanctuary.... The spirit of the Lord hit him so hard he was playing the bass that day and I went over to him to get the bass from him when he took off running or he would have taken the bass with him. He gave me the nickname JR. years ago.and thats the name he would use in greetying me. I was veiwing a listing of shows this morning when I saw HANK WILLIAMS I SAW THE LIGHT. On Friday Morning RAY saw that light he so faithfully sang about for many years. Jeannette Steve Johnathan and family Ray finally made his Journey to that city four Square. its my. prayers that God will comfort you during this time Ray has been an inspration to me and my family.
