“ Dear Frank and Anita, I am saddened to learn of your mother's death. I haven't seen her in a few years, but I knew her and saw her at least twice a week when we were both members of First Baptist Church. She was always such a friendly, pleasant smiling lady, and I will remember her with great fondness. Please except my heartfelt sympathy in your loss. You will be in my thoughts and prayers in the difficult days ahead.

Yours In Christ, Rachel Medlin##imported-begin##Rachel Doyle

“ Anita,
I was saddened to hear of your mom's passing. I always loved to talk to her when I visited the church in Hartsville. She was ALWAYS there! She was a dear friend of Bryan's mom and she emailed last week to tell me of her sickness. I have been praying for you and John as well as Frank and Kelly. I will continue to keep you in my prayers in the coming weeks. I know it's tough right now!

“ Anita and Frank,

So sorry about your loss. Each of you are in my prayers. It seems like yesterday that we were carpooling to Francis Marion and who could forget our trips to Columbia to ML. Anita, it seems as though we live in the same area. We are in Anderson. Would love to see you. Sincerely, Jeda##imported-begin##Jeda Kelley
