Mrs. King was certain of her faith, lived a long happy life but after an extended illness, she was ready to go home.

She was preceded in death by her first husband, George H. Ulmer, and her second husband, Wayne M. King.

Memorials may be made in her memory to Savannah Advent Christian Church, 1948 Ashland-Stokes Bridge Road, Bishopville, SC 29010.

The family would like to thank her very special caregivers, the staff of Crescent Hospice, and the staff of The Retreat At Carolina Bay.

“ I am so sad to hear of Miss Becky's passing. I met her years ago when my mom and sister cleaned for her. She attended several of our family dinners on Sunday's and we enjoyed her company so much. She was such a sweet soul.

“ It is with great sadness that I read of Becky's passing. We were great friends when we both lived in Prestwood Place Apartments in Hartsville in the 90's before she married and moved to Charlotte. I am now in Fort Mill and will not be able to attend the service. May you Rest In Peace my dear friend, Becky.
