I got to know Reggie back in the 90s through our shared love of USC sports. Though we only corresponded mostly via email and through the sports forums for the most part, only meeting in person on a few occasions, the shock of his passing has affected me greatly. He was such an honorable, devoted man and I had a world of respect for him. He made the world such a better place while we had the pleasure of having him with us.

The gates were open wide to welcome Reggie into the Kingdom, of this I am certain.

God bless the Melton Family.

“ Beth, Haylee and Kelsey,
I wish I could take the hurt away but to do that would lessen the memory of how much your Dad was loved by many. I enjoyed so much watching/reading his posts as he witnessed to all. It is truly an inspiration to us all to see a Godly man who is not afraid of sharing his faith, in any forum.
His greatest accomplishment was his relationship with Christ, followed closely by his impact on his two wonderful daughters. You may waiver and you may falter but never forget there are folks here for you and your Dad will always watch over you.
Beth, I know you are a strong person, one of the strongest I've ever met. Be sure of His strength and lean on others when you need to. I know we've left the Plainview Community...but it's never left us. They, and us, are here for you if you ever need anything.
We love you all.##imported-begin##Paul, Karen and Parker Anderson##imported-end##

“ Beth and girls, There is no way to possibly express our sympathy in hearing this earlier today. You all know what Reggie meant to us, and my biggest regret is how my job duties cost me a chance to spend more time with all of you the last several years. Jeff called my parents to make sure we had heard, so please thank him for us. We love you all more than you realize and are so thankful to have met you through the love for our Gamecocks Reggie and I shared. God bless you and give you strength, and find comfort in the fact there is no doubt where he is, and that you'll see him again.###imported-begin##John, Amy, Chandler, and McKenzie Bundy###imported-end##

“ Beth, Haylee and Kelsey
Words can not express how sorry I was to hear about Reggie. I have really got to know him in the last few years and I enjoyed all the things he put on facebook. He is going to be missed but so close to Easter is a reminder of why we are here. Jesus came and gave his life so that we can have ETERNAL LIFE, Reggie now has that ETERNAL LIFE. Thank God for his saving Grace and we will all be together again one day. I know there is going to be a place in your home but fill those places with sweet sweet memories, I made a collage of pictures after my DAD died I just needed to see him at his happy times in life and that helps me to smile and get through each day. Praying for you to find that special something that will help you through the tough time of missing Reggie. Love all of you.

“ Reggie had great passion for God, his Family and the Gamecocks. I'd call him the President of the Sunshine Pumpers. And he made no apologies about that. His wife lost a wonderful Husband. His girls lost a wonder Dad. His dogs lost a great companion. His church lost a dear member. His job lost a dedicated employer. The Gamecocks lost it's best fan. What we all lost, God got a good one. We will miss you Reggie! I am praying for the family. May God comfort you as only HE can! Reggie, I love you. Thanks for being my friend and brother in Christ. “ By the Grace of God, Reggie made it through a brain aneurysm about 10 years ago. We prayed for him. A few months later, I made it through a terrible car wreck. Reggie and others led prayer for me. Reggie and myself felt forever connected due to these "trials". We faced death, and by the Grace of God, we were allowed more time on this earth with our families and friends.
