“ I didn't know "Mr. Rex", personally, but just a little over a year....but I have to say he was the sweetest person, I think, I have ever known. I am a member at Faith Baptist Church and I know that he truly loved the Lord and Faith Baptist. It was very obvious to me when he was there with us at Faith. He will truly be remembered in the most loving way.###imported-begin##Suzanne V. Cooke###imported-end##

“ Mr. Rex, I will miss you. I know I didn't know you very long, only about 5 years, but you were and are a great inspiration to me. A wonderful man who always had a smile on your face. But, oh how I am certain that you are smiling now in the presence of our LORD JESUS CHRIST. How I envy you. But someday I will see you there again and enjoy your company and meet your wife. I know that you are now filled with the joy you have waited so long for. until I see you again, I love you. And to the family left behind, remember that he is spending Christmas with Jesus this year. I hope your pain and grief is lessened by knowing that he is in Heaven. May GOD comfort you all.###imported-begin##Belva J. 'BJ' Gilbert###imported-end##
