“ Although at times Dick would get his dander up he would always end up with ready smile and broad grin. He was a great family man, a never ending story teller and a true friend. Rest in peace.

“ I've known Dick and Jo since 1990 and they were both good people. One of my fondest memories of your dad was when he would walk down the street and stop in to have a beer with my dad after my mom passed. After my dad passed, he would always stop and say hello when I was in town and I'd help him with little projects he needed help with at the house. We still have a key, so stop in the next time you're there and I'll return it if I'm around.
I'll be there Sept. 23-Oct 18.
Dick was a good neighbor.
