“ *Rick was a great friend. We were friends for many years. We first met when I hired on at CP&L's Robinson plant in 1971. Both of us were in the operations group. Although we did not see each other in later years we kept in touch via the phone and would see each other in town once in a while. My last meeting was at Carolina Pines hospital where Rick had some tests done and so did I.
He was a great man and I will really miss him and the long talks we had.##imported-begin##William M. Blaisdell##imported-end##*

“ Rick,
We'll all miss you and all the good things you have done for other people.
You were always like a brother to me. I always enjoyed your candid approach to things and the way you always thought things out before making a decision about matters.
The holidays are always the worst time for remembering someone that has gone on.
We spoke of you last night and the subject of the military came up. Russell referred to the men that served on board submarines as submariners. I corrected him and told him that you wouldn't like that. They are not SUB-MA-RINERS but SUB-MARINERS.
I still have the book that I enjoy so much that you gave me titled, "CONFEDERATE HANDGUNS". The book stays in my computer room. You signed it "To my brother Bill, Rick. April 20. 1993.
God bless you Brother and may God hold your hand tonight and keep you close by.
Love,
Bro Bill##imported-begin##Bill Parker##imported-end##
