“ I was just so very sorry to read of Mr. Bob's passing. He was a wonderful man and I know how much you'll miss him. He always had a kind word or a funny story (usually about Robert's childhood!) to tell when I'd run into him some place or another.

I know how you've all missed Vicki and that it must give you great comfort and joy to know that he and Vicki are together!

Please know that I will be thinking of you and praying for comfort and peace for all of you in the days ahead.

“ I've been sitting here staring at Uncle Bob's photo for the longest and thinking about his service that is happening right now. Uncle Bob was a man who was always thinking of others. He included me often in their family vacations/activities and those memories will always remain in the center of my heart. My husband and daughters always looked forward to being around my Uncle Bob because he was upbeat and kept us all laughing and enjoying life. I am ever so thankful that he will be reunited with our beloved Vicki whom we all miss so very much. Aunt Lessie and Uncle Bobby were always two that you could count on welcoming you into their home and offering you anything and everything to make you feel at home. To my Aunt Lessie, Robert, Susan, Carrie, Doug, Joseph and Daniel, may you always feel the joy that you brought to Uncle Bobby's heart.

*Forever grateful,
Pam and family*

“ I still can't believe Uncle Bob is gone, from this world that is.. His soul rests in heaven for eternity, of that I'm sure. I know he's with Vicki now, and they surely have a lot of catching up to do. Aunt Lessie, Robert, Susan, Carrie, Doug, Joseph, Daniel, etc.. I pray you all a peace beyond your own understanding, during this difficult time. I felt so honored when I was asked to be a pallbearer for such a fine man and uncle, whom I'll surely miss. I can't wait to see you all on Tuesday. I'm attaching a couple of pictures.. hoping that's OK.. :-)

I just found out about Mr. White's death today. Mrs. White sent my mom a card. I remember going to the Whites often when I was a little girl. My most vivid memory is of Mr. White and my dad, (Nelson Best) bringing home a sack of frogs so we could eat frog legs. My dad said it would taste like chicken. They did not! Bobby was a cherished friend of my dad's.
