“ At the Wednesday night supper at FBC, we talked about the wonderful life of Mrs. Redfearn and how blessed she was not to become sick until a few weeks ago. I will always remember that smile and twinkle in her eyes and I see the same trait in her children and grandchildren. If she told any of you her secrets for a long, healthy, and God-blessed life, I would like to hear them! May the love and peace of Jesus Christ "that surpasseth all understanding" sustain you during your time of sorrow.##imported-begin##Jimmy

“ To Brucie, James Berry, Kathy, Fern & Family: My heart aches for you and the loss of your grandmother/great-grandmother. I will always remember Mrs. Redfern (James Berry's grandmother as Caroline & I called her) sitting on the steps of her home or walking around enjoying her yard in the afternoons as we drove down Law Street on our way to our house on Woodland Drive or the club "Prestwood". She would always smile and wave no matter how many times we'd pass. Take comfort in your memories, photos and lean on one another. Your family has the very best taking care of your loved one's service...I would never have made it through the planning or Caroline's service without Mel...he has a great gift, a God given talent for helping people though what was for me, the most painful, difficult time of my and my family's life. May God bless each of you now and in the days ahead.

Sincerely,
