

Mr. Ronald Ray Forrester

November 29, 1949 - July 4, 2025

It is with deep sorrow that the Forrester family announces the death of Mr. Ronald Ray Forrester, 75.

Mr. Forrester entered into rest on Friday, July 4, 2025. The Directors of Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home & Crematory are caring for the family.

Mr. Forrester was born on Tuesday, November 29, 1949, in Pittsburg, Kansas. He is the son of the late Jack Eldon Forrester and the late Margarett Cook Forrester. Ron was a quiet, reserved man who cared deeply for his family. He worked for Robert Bosch Corporation for over 30 years as a computer programmer, where he later retired.

Ron was involved in baseball and softball from the time he was eight years old, continuing on through college, and even played with "The Connectors," a Robert Bosch Company Team. He was also an avid bowler, taking home multiple trophies through the years. He also enjoyed hunting, Clemson Football, and Atlanta Braves Baseball. He resided in Anderson, SC, for the last thirty years, previously living in the North Charleston area, where he began his career with Robert Bosch Corporation. Papa Ron will be greatly missed.

He is survived by his son, Todd Forrester (April) of Hartsville, SC; grandchildren, Hannah F. Dotson (Dalton), and Jackson H. B. Forrester; great-grandchildren, Violet and Amari.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Richard "Tiny" Forrester

Cemetery Details

Private

Events

Details are pending.

Tribute Wall

FS

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of the family and those who loved Mr. Ron. Comfort and peace in all of the days to come. ”

Faye Stinson - July 06, 2025 at 10:21 PM

DM

“ My first true love and the father of my son. We were always the best of friends - through our marriage and after. You will never be forgotten, Ron. ”

Dawn Myers - July 06, 2025 at 09:38 AM