“ Barbara, Darlene, Diane and extended family - our heartfelt condolences to all of you. Rozier was such a true example of what a Christian, family man, Sonoco employee and friend to everyone who knew him should be. I never remember hearing him say anything negative about anyone. He always had a positive, cheerful attitude and loved to witness to whomever he met. He was also gifted with a beautiful tenor voice which could be heard in the New Market choir, and occasionally in a solo, when Marion Watkins could persuade him to do so. He will be missed in your homes, at church, in the community and surrounding areas. I'm sure he's rejoicing in Heaven with Jesus and his beloved wife, Ruth. Both of them are now well and together again. We'll be praying for God's peace and comfort for all of you.

After my own dad, Rudolph was the spiritual dad in my life. He taught me, among other things, that witnessing for Christ was not something you could learn but a gift God freely gives us all.
