“ Dearest Shirley and family of Sister Ruby, My thoughts and prayers are with you. I don't have to tell you that your loss is Heaven's gain. Her labor down her is finished. Many is the time I called Sister Ruby when I needed a prayer answered, and I knew just who could get it straight through to the Master. She was never too busy, but I remember her telling me one time that she wouldn't always be here, and I should live in such a way as to call upon Jesus myself. Let us all be ready to meet her when we draw our last breathe here.. God comfort everyone. In Jesus Name, Jo Lynn Kissiah Newsome

“ Dear Family,

What a great privilege it was to know Miss Ruby. We enjoyed so many meals with her and Mr. Lundy at the Huddle House. Her Christian faith was one that she shared with everyone. How happy heaven must be today. And, though you walk in sadness, remember her smile, her love, and wrap your arms around those near to you in her memory. May God bless you and bring comfort to your hearts.
