“ Heather and Emma, Mr. Wayne and Mrs. Larue, and Allen - Since Scott and I have been married, it seems Russell has always been a part of our lives. Once we moved to Liberty Hill, we were fortunate enough to become even closer to him. I have so many fond memories of him - I believe he had a nickname for everyone. When he came to visit Scott (Scottie too Hottie), he would always make a point to come inside and speak to me (Scolly) and Walker (lil'Buddy). We loved Russell dearly. He touched so many people and made a positive impact on so many lives. We will never forget him.##imported-begin##Scott & Holly Brown##imported-end##

“ To Harold, Larue, Heather and all your family: We are so shocked to hear of your loss. Remembering Russell as a young boy makes me smile. He was always so sweet and polite. It saddens me to know that the world has lost such a great young man. He was an example to all he knew and came in contact with. He was a testimony to his upbringing. Hold tight to God's hand. He will carry you through this difficult time. We will have you all in our prayers. May God Bless
