“ Pam, know that we are remembering you and your family during this time of loss. May the memories you stored in your heart warm you inside during the difficult times and may you feel encouraged because you were a wonderful caring daughter. Eventhough we miss our departed loved ones, remember they will have no more tears, nor pain, only JOY and rejoicing with our beloved heavenly Father.
God loves you and so do I.##imported-begin##Denise Reider##imported-end##

“ Pam and Traci,
I was so saddened to hear of Granny's passing. It seems like yesterday Traci and I were reeking havoc in the Playhouse out back. Ruth was a very special lady and touched the lives of many. St. Luke and the city of Hartsville owe her much gratitude for all the time and love she shared with all. She will be missed and we were so blessed to have known this remarkable lady. Hallelujah- She is home with the Lord.##imported-begin##Lynn M Boawtright##imported-end##

“ Dear Pam,
I am so very sorry to learn of your mother's death. You have been blessed to have her for so many years--she had such a long and fruitful life. The days ahead will be difficult ones, I know. I will keep you in my thoughts and prayers. My prayer for you now is that the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will be yours in your time of grief.
