“ I had the honor of knowing Sadie Bass and her family for over 30 years. I always found her smiling that beautiful smile and greeting everyone with "I love you". She spent her life preparing for her final journey to Heaven. I was always impressed how all the family members took more than excellent care of her, always making sure she had what she needed and surprising her at every opportunity. She was a fine Christian lady who set an grand example for all who knew her. What a comfort to know she is safe and well in the arms of Jesus. Granny Sadie, rest in peace. Even though she is safe and well in Heaven, her family and friends, in time, will be able to deal with the void she had left here on earth. May God comfort you all. All my love, Sandy
