“ Dealing with a mother's death is one of the most emotional and painful experiences that the human condition may require us to do. My sincerest condolences to your families in your loss. In all of our sorrow let us remember that Mrs. Sally is now walking on streets of gold and she has no pain, sickness or sorrow. She is now made again perfect. Your mother was a special woman. Heaven is brighter with a brand new angel. I was blest to have known her and all of you.##imported-begin##Sandra Tisdale##imported-end##
