“ I lived across the street from Mrs Berry for years! She was a very sweet lady. We missed seeing her after she was put in the nursing home. She did love to walk and if it wasn't rainy or too cold she would walk. She did love her Cassady Girls too. My husband would still visit her in the nursing home time to time.

“ It has been a long time since I saw Aunt Sally...My dad (Tommy King), would visit her as often as he could. I always was amazed at how much she enjoyed going on her walks when she was able...All of that walking and her living right allowed her to live a long life....Since I can't come to the funeral due to Coronavirus, I am going to go on a walk around my neighborhood and think of her....Perhaps you can join me by walking around your neighborhood.
