

Mrs. Sandra Galloway Funderburke

June 9, 1941 - January 10, 2016

Mrs. Sandra Galloway Funderburke, 74, died peacefully on Sunday, January 10, 2016. In honor of my grandmother's wishes, we will not have a visitation or memorial service. She respectfully declined these traditions as she never preferred to be in the spotlight; however, we love her very much and would like to honor her memory in some way. This Saturday we invite you to join us at her favorite restaurant, Bojangles, at 8:00 am on Saturday, January 16, 2016. She went to Bojangles almost everyday to spend time with her friends. Please join us to share stories and memories of her and of course enjoy some of her favorite biscuits.

Mrs. Funderburke, widow of C. Ray Funderburke, She was born in Hartsville, SC, a daughter of the late Kenneth M. Galloway and Vera Mae Lunn Galloway. Brown-Pennington-Atkins Funeral Home is serving the family.

Sandra was employed with the Hartsville Oil Mill for a short time before going to Sonoco Products Company as a corporate secretary, October 1960-1995, when she retired on January 22, 2004. She was a member of the Sonoco Old Timers Club and the First Baptist Church of Hartsville. Sandra was educated at Thornwell Elementary School, a graduate of Hartsville High School in 1960, and received her degree from Carolina College of Commerce in 1961.

“ *My memories of Sandra go back to when I was about 8. She and Ken went with me and my mom to see Elvis in Charlotte! What an amazing experience! It was actually one of the last concerts Elvis performed. My daddy, Carlton Hall, worked closely with Sandra for years and was friends with both her and Ray. Boy, does he have some stories!! I fondly remember her as the secretary in the lab when I would visit my daddy. She was always a trip---laughing, joking around, and oh what a smile! She will certainly be missed. You all will be in our thoughts and prayers.

“ My grandmother has always loved children. As a child my brother and I would play at her house and she made sure to spoil us! Some of my favorite memories of her include: her teaching my brother and me how to cook breakfast, going to Mcdonald's with her and my great grandpa, we would always eat spaghetti, french fries, cucumbers and ranch dip for dinner when we went to her house, she took us back to school shopping every year, she would always buy us neapolitan ice cream and cones for hot summer days, she had a never ending supply of sunny delight, she also let us watch the michael jackson video and dance countless times, as we got older and had children of our own she continued to pour out her love on her great grandchildren, she would ride them around on her walker all over the house and the yard, not to mention I can't recall a single holiday where she did not send my brother, my kids, and myself a card in the mail...the list could go on and on. My grandmother was an exceptional lady who took great care of those she loved. I'm thankful to have been able to call her my grandmother.
