

Mrs. Sarah Roxie Lovin

August 27, 1965 - September 27, 2014

Sarah Roxie Lovin was called home early morning of Saturday, September 27, 2014. Sarah was the mother of Joseph Lovin (Lyssa) and grandmother of Lila, Alan, and Oakley Lovin all of Sumter Sc. Sarah was the type of person who even if you didn't know her the first time you met her you would feel as if you have known her all of your life. She had the biggest heart we had ever seen and would do anything for anyone weather you were her family, friends, or even a stranger. Sarah loved her family more than anything in this world, no matter what family always came first to her. Anyone would fall in love with her and the person she was the first time that they met her. Her and her son Joseph shared an unbreakable bond that not a sole could ever come in between. The love and the bond the two of them shared was unexplainable and noticed by everyone. They mean the world to one another. Sarah's wishes were to not have a funeral service, she simply wanted to be cremated and have her ashes scattered in Myrtle Beach, SC, off of the pier. We will announce a date and time later for anyone who wishes to be present during the scattering of her ashes, we welcome anyone who would like to be present. Sarah also had 3 brothers and 2 sisters whom she loved her dearly, as well as several nieces and nephews. Also 2 special nieces that she helped take care of growing up, Paula Lovin & Tasha Lovin.

Surviving are her son, Joseph (Lyssa) Lovin of Sumter, SC; brothers, Edward (Annette) Lovin of Elberton, GA, William (Susan) Lovin of Florence, SC; sisters, Paula "Sis" Barrineau of Hartsville, SC, Angela Lovin of Sumter, SC; grandchildren, Lila Lovin, Alan Lovin, Oakley Lovin; several loving nieces, nephews, and cousins. She is preceded in death by her brother, James Lovin.

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. The death of a loved one is one of the most devastating experiences a human can face. At times, the loss can seem unbearable. The Bible promises; "God is near to the brokenhearted." It also says: "Throw your burden on God and he will sustain you." I hope this message will help you cope with the loss of your loved one.
