“ There are too many memories to list here. We went on a beautiful river cruise together and many other outings. Selma and Clem and Tom and I were friends from our first meeting. I loved her phone calls in our later years. I couldn't have asked for a better friend. I love you, Selma. Janie Heard (Malone)

“ I think back of fun and happy times while growing up in the neighborhood with Selma and Clem. I loved sitting on their dock on the lake and tying an inter tube to the end and floating in the lake. I was totally fascinated with the framed pictures of all the arrowheads they had accumulated. And as an older child, I was invited to Dani's wedding, the first wedding I had ever been to! I was visiting in Hartsville in 2010 and Selma invited me out to lunch! We so enjoyed one another's company. Thanks for the memories. Carol Ann (Terry) Frock

“ Aunt Selma was “my person”, especially after her brother, my daddy Pinky passed away. Aunt Selma and I had many adventures together, whether it was a shopping trip or simply out to eat. In her later years, I would visit her and we would sit up all night watching old movies or listening to music and enjoy “nibbles”. She was my encourager when I was hesitant about making decisions. She was my inspiration to travel and enjoy life to the fullest because that’s what she did. She will always be in my heart. Join me as we celebrate her life and the fact that she is now released from pain and is now back with her beloved Clem and their daughter Dani. We had a quote that we would say to each other. “I wish you enough “, which means you didn’t have to have everything but enough to find Joy, Peace and Love to endure life. Aunt Selma, I will always LOVE you and miss you. 💜

“ A sweet memory. Years ago Pete Coggeshall Sr. Gave me 2 Masters tickets for Thursday. He asked if I would please drive Selma to the tournament. It was Arnold Palmers last year that he played. Her favorite player. So away we went. I carried Selma's Green Master's chair to no. 9 green where she sat all day. What a special day for both of US. BLESS YOU SELMA
