“ I loved Miss Selma. She brought me through the loss of both my parents and a husband. She was on of God's best and how my family loved her. She is in the place where she will do great things and look down on her wonderful family, friends and neighbors like myself. She visited my mother when she came to live with me. She was always there with a warm smile and loving heart. She will be missed at my home as well as in her own. She love her children, the grand children and greats... I will miss you hold that chair up there between you and my mother.

“ Wilma and I love Ms Selma! It was such a joy for us visit with her recently. Even when I was her pastor, her favorite question to me was, "you behaving yourself"? I always said "no", she always said "good". That is how our conversation began the last time I saw her.

Wilma and I will always remember Ms. Selma. What a lasting mark of her Godliness, thoughtfulness, gentleness, and sweet humor she leaves as a legacy to her dear family, and, upon everyone that had the distinct privilege of knowing her.

Love,
Kenny and Wilma
