Just put your faith in Christ and try to understand. God only loans us our children and when He is ready He calls them home for a reason but He leaves us with wonderful memories. I cant tell you it gets better in time I wish I could, all I can say is thank God for the memories. May God be with you##imported-begin##Elaine Beasley##imported-end##

“ To my childhood friend,

I didn't get to know the beautiful woman you would become in adulthood. I do know you were a divine being having a human experience. The Shannon I knew and will always know, was that fun, funny, loving, feisty, fearless, caring, adventurous childhood friend of mine. I remember those magical days of innocent joy and ecstasy as we turned our neighborhood into a playground. That dirt road, those enchanting woods, making fire pits, roasting hot dog weenies and who could forget all the motorcycles and my go-cart. I remember riding on the back of that little red motorcycle of yours. I think Mitchie's was bigger and blue. I remember the fun and special friendship between the three girls...me, you and Glenda. I remember how much you loved coming over to my house and eating sloppy joes. I remember how much I loved going over to your house and hanging out. I remember how much we use to laugh. My precious childhood friend, may you experience the freedom and ecstasy of a playground as you have finally found your way home. Peace be still...I love you dear old friend.

Mickey, Shelly, Mitchie, Canton and Landon, I can only imagine what you must be going through. My heart goes out to you and I send all my love as you experience the grieving process. Mickey and Shelly, it was so nice to see you when I went back home for Christmas this past year. It's been a long time. I truly wish I could have seen Shannon before I came back to LA. It would have been nice to see my dear friend after all these years. I hold her in my heart knowing she is free, at peace and experiencing a state of joy and bliss in her new home.

Canton and Landon, I only met you one time when I went back home for Christmas this past year. I'm the one who lives in California and was walking the dog. You both reminded me so much of your Mom. She used to love riding her motorcycle just like you were riding. Your Mom was a great person filled with a lot of love. Even though she is not physically present anymore, she will always be with you. A Mom's love never dies. Always know how much you are loved by her.

*Peace and love to you all,

“ I just left the funeral/burial and this past week has been one of the HARDEST for me. I took Shannon for granted, thinking I could visit my friend anytime. I was wrong! When I saw her , which was not too long ago...we both ended with I love ya, girl. Shannon and I were long time friends, neighbors, bus buddies,etc... We lived beside each other for 10-11 years +.....Thank you Shannon for being the little sister throughout those years, and Mitchie for being the big brother. Because of Shannon I'll treasure everybody a little more in my life. And I'll be fishing/visiting with Canton and Lan Lan more . I know Shannon heard every word I told her while she was in ICU,and I'm grateful I had time to spend with her and the Vann family these final days. I'll miss her dearly. Thanks for everything Shannon...I love ya, girl.##imported-begin##GLENDA CAMPBELL##imported-end##

“ Mickey, Shelly, Mitch and boys

It seems like only yesterday we were loading the kids in the car to go out to eat every weekend and now we hardly see each other but it's just like we talked about at the hospital, true friends just pick up where they left off and we truly consider you very dear friends. I can't imagine what you are going thru because we are so sad. We can't understand why God takes one so young but he has a purpose and we'll all understand one day. Your family is in our thoughts and prayers and if you need us we are as close as a phone call.
