There are no words to adequately describe Shelby Jean. She was the most Loving, caring, Thoughtful friend and person you could ever meet. She kept my boy, Michael Auman for awhile until I stopped working. We went to church together, she was the same sweet person any time you saw her. I consider it an honor to have know her. Sending much Love and Prayers to her Family. Jennie Lib

“ I am so sad to hear the passing of Mrs. Shelby. She was the first to keep my children from 6 weeks old until she closed candyland. We were blessed to have her in our lives, such a loving and caring sweet lady. Her husband Red fought fire with my dad as they served on the Hartsville Fire Department. I remember a camping weekend as a child in Mr. Reds camper ,he offered to daddy for us to enjoy. Great memories! A sweet family!! Prayers to Becky and all the family during this time of great loss. We loved Mrs.Shelby.

“ Becky and Jonathan, you are in my thoughts and prayers. Your mom was one of the kindest ladies I know. She was such a good neighbor and always looked out for my mom. I have fond memories of her working in her yards. She would even help keep my mom's yard raked and neat. She was always smiling. May God comfort you during this difficult time.
