That's funny everyone should not fail to notice there was not one picture of either grandchild and him in any of these photos he was a horrible man and an even worse grandfather god blessed the day he stopped breathing and karma slapped bobbie and Jay in their mouths they couldn't even spell his grandchild name correctly because they don't know him hadn't seen him since he was 2

Vanessa Sessoms - January 26, 2022 at 06:49 PM

“ If you were going to misspell his grandsons name because you don't know him or how to spell his name you should have left him out just like you did in the pictures oh but that's right you guys don't have any pictures of his grandkids cause you were both shitty grandparents who never did anything for his grandchildren

“ Shelton was one of the funniest guys I have ever known. He could make you laugh so hard you would cry. I will miss his wit and quick come backs when joking around. I have known Shelton a long time and he was the best at teaching others how to run a decorator. We have sent many team members to train with Shelton and all came back better from his knowledge. I will miss not hearing him saying You big Dummy. Some people you meet in your life become like family I love you my friend.
