

Mrs. Sherry Johnston Phillips

April 18, 1937 - April 28, 2020

Sherry Johnston Phillips passed away on April 28, 2020, surrounded by her loving husband and family. Sherry was born in Georgetown SC, April 18, 1937, to the late Jack Whitesides Johnston and Leslie Dew Johnston. She began her beautiful life as the oldest of five younger siblings and after High School in Florence SC met and married Edgar Allen Phillips

Together they shared a love story and 2 daughters, Celestial Phillips Wehmer and husband William C Wehmer, Elizabeth Phillips Culler. Sherry was an active member of West Hartsville Baptist Church and her community over many years. She was a brilliant landscape artist with a passion for kindness and compassion for others.

She is survived by Ed her beloved husband of 65 years, her two daughters, her grandson Baxter Clyde Culler IV and Lena Zobec, and great-grandson Baxter Clyde Culler V. She is also survived by her brother Strom Thurmond Johnston and his wife Beverly Johnston

Our thanks go to the Hospice of South Carolina Staff, The Heritage House Florence SC, and The Mcleod Hospice House for their stellar care, professionalism and love for our beloved and beautiful Sherry.

A private funeral will be held by the family with requests for prayers for those suffering from Alzheimer's.

“ Aunt Sherry was a beautiful person inside and out. Her laughter warmed the atmosphere of any room and she could always find a way to make memories special and fun.....for certain....when I think of her that is what I remember. I also cherish the memories of the love she and my Uncle Ed shared. Something to be admired. You're all in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Celeste, My heart breaks for you and your family. Cherokee Drive was an idyllic place to grow up and part of that magic was Sherry. She always kept us stocked with dill pickles, fixed our scraped knees and made us laugh, even when we tried not to. She was such a beautiful soul and has left those who knew and loved her with endless memories to treasure.
