

Mr. Sidney "Sid" C. Zemp III

May 7, 1941 - May 25, 2025

Sidney "Sid" Capers Zemp III, age 84, passed away peacefully in Hartsville, SC at home surrounded by his loving family on May 25, 2025. Sid was a beloved husband and father, a loyal friend, and a spirited soul, known for his warmth, integrity, and lifelong dedication to his family and community.

Sid's early years in Camden anchored his strong character and deep appreciation for the traditions of his hometown. He carried those values with him throughout his life, passing them down to his children and touching the lives of many with his kindness, wisdom, and generous spirit. Sid had a natural charm and an honest approach that quickly turned acquaintances into lifelong friends. For many years, he made his mark in the marine industry sharing his knowledge of the water with a well-respected and rich legacy of honest deals.

After moving to Hartsville, that charm led Sid to become a respected and cherished member of the community. He was admired for his unwavering loyalty to his friends and for his willingness to help others. His love of cooking brought people together, whether it was a perfectly seared steak, a home-cooked meal, or an impromptu backyard barbeque. Sid's tenacious wit, sincerity, and steadfastness earned him the affection of all who knew him. He could easily light up the room with a clever remark or a playful jab. He found joy in the little things—sunny afternoons, loyal dogs at his feet, patio football, and the satisfaction of a great day on the boat.

He is survived by his loving wife of 42 years, Madge Windham Zemp; his children, Colonel Sidney Capers Zemp IV, US Army, Retired (Eva), Colonel William H. Zemp, US Army, Retired, PhD (Amy), Matthew Thomas Zemp (Jillian), and Michael Windham Camak (Ashley); and grandchildren, Caroline Elena Zemp, Annalise Marina Zemp (Stuart), Adam Capers Zemp, William McKinney Zemp, Abigail Elizabeth Zemp, Kinsey Marie Zemp, Maya Thomas Zemp, Ella Gray Camak, Porter Vance Hunnicutt, and Michael Woods Camak; his brother, Robert WM Zemp (Becky Olive); brother in laws, Ronald L. Windham and Baron H. Windham II; nieces and nephews, and many friends who will remember him for his compassion, guidance, and positive impact. Sid's legacy will live on in the memories of those who were fortunate enough to know him.

He was predeceased in death by his parents, Sidney Capers Zemp Jr and Sarah Brunson Zemp; sister, Loretta Zemp Lannutti.

A service will be held to honor Sidney's life Thursday, May 29th at 11AM at First Presbyterian Church in Hartsville, SC. The family will have a reception immediately following the service. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the Darlington County Humane Society, First Presbyterian Church of Hartsville, or the charity of your choice in Sid's honor. Though he has left the dock on his final voyage, Sid's spirit and example will continue to inspire all who knew and loved him.

The family would like to add a special thank you to Dr. Abraham Areephanthu and Crescent Hospice for their exceptional care.

Brown-Pennington Atkins Funeral Home is caring for the family.

“ In 1983, as a 111 pound kid, I bought the best album I ever have known, that is still in my possession to this day. (I was listening to it this morning when I learned of Sid’s death.....memories!) I got the album at Roses’s Department Store in Hartsville that year, from the record department there. Dionne Warwick’s “HOT LIVE AND OTHERWISE” on Arista Records is far and away the greatest album my ears have ever known, as a “LIVE” album. This is simply MY experience from my youth. I spent a fortune on it (by teenage standards) from my proceeds as a bus boy at The Beacon Restaurant of Hartsville, working for Madge and Sid Zemp, very early in their marriage.

I recall saving for the album, and having JUST enough to buy it, but being broke afterwards.....my dear father advanced me $5, Sid advanced me another $5, and so I was able to get gas for my car after my extravagant spending....I think the album was $16, which was a lot to me back in the day, and frankly a LOT then period, and I never was all that responsible with my Beacon checks. Dionne Warwick is by far my favorite singer.....she has brought me a tremendous amount of joy and serenity over these many years. Sid and Madge Zemp, also brought me a lot of joy, by being LIFE AND EXPERIENCE teachers to me in my high school days, teaching me love and kindness, and much more, as I served them, the Windhams, (Madge’s family), and the public at a Hartsville institution, The Beacon Restaurant.

I’m deeply saddened he’s gone, but I know today he’s with Jesus Christ, where I also yearn to be. My wife, Amy, and I, and the members of the church I pastor, Elim Methodist Church of Lamar, extend our deepest sympathies to Madge and Sid’s family.

*Madge, to you, remember, we occasionally might be hanging by a thread... but it’s attached to the hem of His garment. Don’t forget this.

With love,

Rev. Andy and Amy Williams, and the entire congregation of Elim Methodist Church of the Oates Community outside of Lamar, SC, Darlington County, SC, USA
