“ Dear Becky, Gloria & family,

We were so shocked and saddened to find out about Sonny's death. We really enjoyed meeting the two of you at Bizzell's. You reminded us of ourselves, just content and happy with where you were in your lives and with each other.

Sonny seemed to be a wonderful and friendly person, which we would have enjoyed spending more time with.

You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ SONNY HAS ALWAYS HAD A SPECIAL PLACE IN OUR HEART. YEARS AGO ON OUR WEDDING DAY MY UNCLE CAME FROM N.C., HE MADE A WRONG TURN AT THE LIGHT HE WENT RIGHT INSTEAD OF LEFT, HE STOPPED AT SONNY'S, HE ASK DID ANYONE THERE KNOW HOW TO GET TO OUR HOUSE AND SONNY SENT HIM THE RIGHT WAY. WHEN MY BOYS AND I FIRST MOVED TO MCBEE SONNY WAS ONE WHO MADE US FEEL VERY WELCOME. I WILL MISS HIS SMILE AND HIS KINDNESS.

So sorry for your loss. I have so many fond memories associated with McBee and Sonny's. John and I both dearly loved his chicken fingers. No better anywhere. “ Family of sonny... I'm sorry to hear about your loss... I loved him so.. He was such a good man... I go to his resturant alot when my mom (Rosemary Johnson) was workin there... I use to go there after there my school and after practice... And when sonny was there I use to just talk to him... He always asked about my grades and other things... But, I have one bad habit (sucking my thumb) and me and him made up a way to stop my bad habit.Anyways I'm doing what he said when I think about it.. And so of a later I will stop my habit just because of him... well I hope his resturant will stay in business and your family is in my prayers always... well I think I have said enough now.##imported-begin##Minnie Horton##imported-end##
