“ Im shocked and saddened today at the passing of my childhood friend Stacey. She was taken out of time entirely too soon. Stacey and I had the same daycare as kids, and our mothers were very good friends. I will miss you, Stacey.
Rest easy, your work is done.

“ I will miss my little girl very much. She was such a sweet person that never asked for anything. She suffered so much the last few years of her life and God has taken her to be with him and she is now pain free. I will always wish that I had spent more time with her. That I had called and heard her sweet voice. She did without and never complained. The hardest part of losing Stacey was looking through her pictures as a youth. She was such a beautiful young lady. Stacey I will make it up to you when I see you in Heaven.

“ I met Stacey when she was two years old. She and my son were at the same babysitter/daycare (Laura Nuovo). Joyce and I have been best friends for over 35 years. Stacey and Ashley played a prank on us one day. They took the pots and pans out from under the kitchen cabinet and climbed inside, waiting for Joyce and me to come into the kitchen. Slowly, the drawer slid out. I closed it. Again, it slid out, ever so slowly. I closed it. This time as it slid out and I reached out to close it, it closed all by itself. Bam! Joyce and I nearly knocked each other over trying to get away. The cabinet doors opened and the two came crawling out, laughing so hard they could not breathe. We were so scared we forgot to be angry. We still all remember that to this day. Stacey is an original. Heaven definitely just gained an angel, and one that will keep everyone there on their toes.

My heart goes out to Joyce and Miakel, Pat and Maryann, Anthony, and Lawrence and Mason. I don't even know what to say, except this....we don't understand why this has happened but as Joyce so eloquently said, "God just needed her more than I did". Call on your faith to help you get thru this. Life is eternal and you will see Her again one of these days. Until then, live every day to the fullest and be thankful for everything you have. And love. Stacey did. Rest well, my sweet girl. I love you.

You and Joyce also, as you ran screaming out of the house, forgot to find and grab your kids. Yup, yall just forgot all about us and ran away. Stacey and I laughed even harder about that one.
