“ Dear Woodham family,

I was shocked to hear of Sue's death! She was a sweet person! I grew up down the street from her and Lee. She would baby sit me from time to time. I remember going to Santee with us too! Girls, hang in there. It will be hard, but draw strength from God. He is always with you. I lost my mother at age ten when she was 53. I understand how you feel. Lee, stay strong and know that God is by your side. Call if you need anything!

Love,

“ Lee & girls; Lee, Jean & family - My entire family sends its love during this sad, sad time. It's hard to believe this. Really hard. Even though Sue and I didn't go to the same elementary school, we became friends at an early age because we went to the same Church. The last time we spoke, we were catching up on each others children. All of you are in our prayers.

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. Death is an enemy to us all. It is especially an enemy when it strike someone dear to us. God is more powerful than death and he promise to get rid of this enemy once and for all. The Bible teaches: "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." (1Corinthians 15:26) Then John 5:28 will be fulfilled that reads: "Marvel not at this, for the hour is coming when all that are in the graves shall hear his voice and come forth." I hope this message will help you cope with the loss of your loved one.

“ Lee. Taylor and Susan, This was such a shock to all of us. Sue was a great person that I loved like a sister. We all have our memories, and no one can take that away from us. I will especially miss our shopping trips. Sue and I could always shop from the time stores opened until they ran us out to lock the doors. She was a wonderful best friend.

“ Lee, Susan and Taylor:

We were truly devastated to hear of the loss of such a vibrant, caring, compassionate woman such as Sue. She was very passionate about her job in caring for individuals with disabilities and special needs. Sue was a perfectionist in her work! We cannot begin to imagine the grief that your family is enduring. On behalf of the Board of Directors and the entire DCDSNB family, our heartfelt sympathy. We will miss Sue and pray God's blessings upon your family as he provides comfort to you during this most difficult time.
